

UNSTOPPABLE

Victoria Woodhull

1872 Presidential Candidate. Jailed on Election Day

BOOK DESCRIPTION

In an America that denied women the right to vote, Victoria Woodhull dared to run for president.

From a struggling childhood to the center of New York's political and financial elite, Woodhull battles scandal, ridicule, betrayal, and impossible odds as she fights to claim power in a world determined to silence women. Alongside her brilliant and fiercely loyal sister Tennessee, she challenges the political establishment, confronts hypocrisy, and risks everything to demand equality.

Unstoppable: The Victoria Woodhull Story is a sweeping historical novel about ambition, resilience, and one woman's determination to change America long before the nation was ready to listen.

THE AUTHOR

This is Kate Danaher's first novel. She holds a Ph.D. in English Literature from the University of Delaware and is a former professor of English at Rosemont College, Pennsylvania. She is an Irish storyteller, fiddler, and a founder and emeritus board member of the Irish Heritage Theater in Philadelphia.

She also performed with and served on the board of the Delaware Shakespeare Festival. Under the name Danaher and Cloud, she and her music partner, Amy Cloud Chambers, produced four Americana albums: Portraits, Late Bloomers, The Holiday Album, and the multi-award-winning album for kids, Just Kiddin'. All available on popular streaming services.

An avid tennis player, she lives in Bonita Springs, Florida, with her husband, Bill Parks. They spend their summers in Troy, New York.

Website: katedanaher.com

Contact: kate@katedanaher.com

ADVANCE PRAISE FOR KATE DANAHER'S UNSTOPPABLE

“Kate Danaher's novel Unstoppable is a revelation—and I say this having written a biography of Victoria Woodhull myself. In her fictional account of this extraordinary character, Danaher combines the work of a skilled researcher with the flair of a poet to resurrect Victoria as she was, not as she has been incorrectly depicted for a century. This Victoria, Danaher's Victoria, is the true Victoria, and she is an inspiration.”

—MARY GABRIEL,
author of Ninth Street Women