Unstoppable: The Victoria Woodhull Story

Join Kate Danaher, former professor of English literature at Rosemont College, to discuss her debut historical novel, Unstoppable. It chronicles the incredible journey of Licking County native, Victoria Woodhull, who in 1872 became the first woman to run for U. S. President.

They had to stop her. They jailed her on Election Day.

Big Buck Blow-up

The 'Big Buck Blow-up'

Genealogist, Mary L. Shearer, a relative of Victoria Woodhull's second husband Colonel James H. Blood, will reveal court records that disprove the long-standing accusation of arson against Victoria and her father, Buck Clafin. The fire occurred on June 13, 1846.

This year marks the 180th anniversary of that fateful night.
